

3rd International Conference on

Neurological Disorders and Brain Injury

April 18-19, 2017 London, UK

Aguinaldo Pereira Catanoce

Pontifical Catholic University of Campinas, Brazil

Development and improvement of multidisciplinary work in the treatment of major vascular lesions of the nervous system

Development and improvement of multidisciplinary work in the treatment of major vascular lesions of the nervous system. Implemented a corporative hospital management system and clinical care aimed at the fast and efficient service in cases of hemorrhagic stroke, especially of the cerebral aneurysm and feasibility of endovascular or surgical treatment. Described and documented the efficiency and the good results through the organization of medical and multidisciplinary team associated with the corporate organization focused on innovation in the management model.

Biography

Aguinaldo Pereira Catanoce completed his Graduation and Post-graduation in Medicine and Neurosurgery at Catholic University of Campinas in Brazil in 2007. He is a member of Brazilian Society of Neurosurgery since 2009. He has eight years of experience in "Neurosurgery and video endoscopes for brain tumors at the base of skull and intra-ventricular area in addition to the improvement of microsurgical treatment of vascular lesions". He is a Neurosurgeon and Professor in Department of Neurosurgery at University of Campinas, Brazil; Manager; Medical and Technical Director at University Hospital, São Paulo, Brazil with seven years of experience in Hospital Management.

apcatanoce@hotmail.com

Notes: