

Managing smiles, a complex mission

Mazen Almasri

Umm Alqura University, Saudi Arabia

The new era of oral maxillofacial rehabilitation is designated by increase demand of facial cosmetics where a beautiful smile may form a major component. In this presentation, the author will discuss about the complexity of restoring perfect smile in patients. The components, classification, defects categories and variable treatment plan and alternatives will be discussed.

mazen_ajm@yahoo.com