

Brief Interview with Dr. Celestial T Yap

Journal of Clinical & Experimental Pharmacology

1. How many years have you been associated with the current research?

10 years.

2. What is the research topic you are working on now?

Cancer progression, biomarkers in diseases.

3. What are attributes for a quality article?

Clear writing, good scientific quality with robust experiments and definitive conclusions.

4. Do you have any research funding (NIH or other national funding) now?

Yes.

5. When did you become an editor of OMICS Journal?

2013.

6. Where can the journal find the maximum scope in terms of niche?

Basic science research with translational elements.

7. What is your greatest career accomplishment?

Mentoring clinician scientists and junior scientists.

8. How does the published scientific content assist the potential researchers?

Providing new insights or new directions to look into, or highlighting existing unresolved issues.

9. What is the purpose of serving as an editor?

Provide expertise for setting international standards for journal.

10. Do you have any patents?

No.

11. Have you contributed any editorials or papers (any types) to OMICS Journals in the past two years?

1 editorial being processed.

12. Do you plan to contribute any editorials or papers to OMICS Journals in the coming year?

Likely.

13. How would you define your experience with OMICS Group?

Good level of engagement.

14. Your opinion on conducting Editorial Board meetings at related Conferences?

NA.

15. Would you recommend OMICS to your friends or colleagues?

Yes.

16. How do you differentiate Journal of Clinical & Experimental Pharmacology with other journals in the field?

Still a fairly new journal which needs to be established in readership.