On behalf of the Editorial Board members, I express genuine thankfulness to all authors and reviewers of the Journal of Oral Health and Dental Management (OHDM) in the interest of the whole publication board and the publisher. It was with the negligible co-activity, excitement, and soul of the authors and reviewers we could make OHDM a fantastic achievement. Authors have been a genuine inspiration and key in setting up OHDM among one of the best journal for publication in the subject of Oral and Dental Health. I express gratitude towards them all for considering and trusting OHDM as the stage for publishing their significant work. I additionally thank all authors for their caring co-activity stretched out during the different phases of processing of the articles in OHDM. For the achievement of any journal, reviewers are a fundamental part and subsequently they merit earnest appreciation. The editors greatly appreciate the contribution of reviewers who have dedicated their valuable time and efforts in reviewing the assigned manuscripts, which is crucial to the journal's editorial decision-making process.

The Journal of Oral Health and Dental Management follows a double-blind peer-review process, where the identities of both the authors and reviews are not disclosed, to avoid any biases. Committing to review is a diligent task, requiring not only careful reading, analysis, and commentary but also a willingness to continue with a manuscript through multiple revisions. With the expanding number of manuscript entries this year, your convenient surveys were important to control the choice of unrivaled works for publication in OHDM.

Manuscripts coming under the scope of Oral Health are published within 3 weeks from their date of submission. For any query, you can visit the "Instructions for Authors" tab on the journal's homepage or you can get in touch with us by means of email. Once again, we would like to use this open door to thank you for the exertion and aptitude that you add to exploring, without which it is difficult to maintain the high standards of peer-reviewed journals.
