

Audits; how to carry out an Audit and reflect on your current practice, UK

Mohammed Shaath
Park House Dental Group, United Kingdom

Abstract

Objective: To assess the benefits of Audits in improving practitioners ability and standards.

Through this presentation, I will explain the importance of Audits in clinical governance and to break down each section of an audit and how its conducted.

By explaining how to carry out audits, it will give the practitioner a way to assess their current level of practice or service to identify areas that need improving.

Results: By the end of the presentation, listeners will be able to conduct their own audits and service evaluations to improve their practice.
