Awards

Longdom Awards support with an aim in recognizing outstanding achievements and contributions of professionals and researchers in the area of Medical, Life Sciences, Physical Sciences, Health Care and Engineering.

Longdom Scientific Committee, a committee within the Advisory Council, is responsible for recommending individuals for awards for consideration and approval. Longdom awards are categorised to best speaker talks, best abstract, best poster award, outstanding young researcher award and house of delegate awards. Awards are presented annually at the venue of the Longdom conference meetings. Winners of the awards will be considered to have presented an original scientific or technical study investigating a novel application or an innovative research approach, of a standard suitable for publication at an international level.

Nanotech 2020: It is focusing on “Creating Intelligence Structure and Future of Nanoengineering” to develop and explore knowledge among the nanotechnology community and to launch new businesses and swapping ideas. Providing the right stage to present thought-provoking Keynote talks, Plenary sessions, Discussion Panels, B2B Meetings, Poster symposia, Video Presentations, and Workshops. Nanotech 2020 foresees over 200 participants from 7 continents with revolutionary subjects, discussions, and expositions. This will be marvellous viability for the researchers, students and the delegates from Universities and Institutes to intermingle with the world-class Scientists, speakers, technicians and laser Practitioners and Industry Professionals working in the field of Nanotechnology, Nano-biotechnology and Nanomaterials.

Outstanding Speaker Awards

The award's objective is to encourage participants to be innovative in the way the research work is delivered to engage the audience.

Judging Criteria:

Originality (weighting 15%) – original research contributing to cumulative knowledge base of field that is likely to inspire peers and has not been presented previously

Research method (weighting 15%) – scientifically sound contention/conclusion supported by robust evidence with critical and coherent analysis

Presentation style (weighting 70%) – novel, innovative, entices high level of engagement and effective mechanism to deliver the research work concepts and conclusions

Best Abstract Awards

All abstracts/papers submitted are critically reviewed by the Scientific Committee as to their eligibility and suitability. They are rated based on the quality of the presentation content, the educational value and the quality of the written abstract. The conference (congress) will offer awards to the three best abstracts (First, Second and Third).

A “Certificate of Appreciation” will be given to 2nd and 3rd nominations from the participant abstracts of the conference.

Please note that;

The jury will only consider the nominated speakers for the Best abstracts awards selection. The jury will evaluate the nominated abstracts according to; uniqueness, title, abstract, and key words.

The applicants of Best Abstracts Awards should register for the conference. The nominated abstracts will not be evaluated in case of not fulfilling the registration requirements.

The awards will be announced at the closing ceremony of the conference and the author(s) of the nominated abstracts should be present at the opening ceremony.
